The Weary friar Inn has a small and large function room available, suitable for group bookings for your special occasions throughout the year. Please ask a member of staff for more details.

The Weary Friar Inn dates back to the 12th century. Story has it that the monks who built the church of St Odulphus next door actually built the Inn first, so they could live in it while they built the church. The church is dated 1151 making the The Weary Friar Inn one of the oldest Inns in the country. A tunnel exists beneath the Inn, leading directly to the church.
